

2021 Youth Concert – Beethoven’s Belated Birthday Ball
YouTube Links for Study

IMPORTANT NOTE: We find that YouTube and other on line video services offer many advertisements at the beginning and during the videos it shows. As you are likely aware, the content of these advertisements may not always be suitable for students of the age who attend our Youth Concerts. Consequently, we ask that you exercise caution with each link below, and we encourage you to view each video prior to showing it to your students. Please pre-screen and present the videos in a manner that keeps students from being exposed to inappropriate content.

The Charlottesville Symphony recorded its annual Youth Concert on Wednesday, October 13, 2021 at The Center at Belvedere. Music Director Benjamin Rous led principal members of the orchestra in a program that presents the life and works of the mighty Ludwig van Beethoven, as well as music by more modern composers: Still, Coleman and D’Rivera. Below you will find YouTube links to the pieces we performed. We offer these links to help you prepare to watch our video, which will be available for the month of January, 2022. We gratefully acknowledge the financial support of the Charlottesville Symphony Society, the County of Albemarle and the Mr. and Mrs. James L. Brown Endowed Fund for Youth Concerts.
